

Pet care upgrade

Traveling with your pet or boarding them while you're on vacation? Here's how our international pet insurance can help if your trip plans change.

Whether your pet is traveling with you or staying behind, the Travelex pet care upgrade¹ helps take care of them when plans change unexpectedly. This optional upgrade offers financial protection for unexpected veterinary expenses and additional boarding costs if your travel is delayed.

Extra confidence for you and your pet

- Receive up to $2,500 for pet veterinary expenses if your cat or dog experiences an eligible sickness or injury while traveling with you.
- Receive up to $250 for additional pet boarding costs (up to three days) if your return home is delayed for an eligible reason.

How the pet care benefit works

Pet veterinary expense coverage

If your pet experiences an eligible illness or injury while traveling, this benefit can help cover veterinary care costs.

Pet boarding reimbursement

If your trip home is delayed due to an eligible reason, this benefit helps cover the cost of extending your pet's stay in a licensed kennel or boarding facility.

File a claim in 1–2–3

1. For veterinary expenses — Obtain documentation from the licensed veterinarian, including medical records and receipts.
2. For extended boarding costs — Provide proof of travel delay and an itemized invoice from the licensed kennel or boarding facility.
3. Submit your claim through the Travelex online claim portal.
